This document sets out the Terms and Conditions you need to be aware of when using these websites and platforms or purchasing from us. Please take a moment to read it, as it sets out the terms of our relationship so that we may benefit from clear boundaries and knowing what to expect from each other.

When you visit our website or online school platform, use our services, or purchase our products, you agree that you are over the age of 18 and willing to be bound by these Terms & Conditions. Attending any classes or sessions with Dr Niikee or our team confirms that you have read and understand this document. If you disagree, you should not continue to visit this website or purchase anything from us.

All products and services advertised on our website or school platform are offered in compliance with Australian Consumer Law.

These Terms & Conditions may be changed or modified from time to time. Please check back regularly to ensure you are aware of any changes.

You may be provided with additional, specific Terms of Participation regarding our programs. If there is any inconsistency between this document and those specific Terms, the Website or Online School Terms & Conditions are overruled to the extent of the inconsistency.

Content Disclaimer

On the website, School platform and our social media accounts, we provide content supporting the evolution of collective consciousness by sharing information about the greater reality. We offer education, physical modalities, health and spiritual guidance to allow people the opportunity to experience and access their optimal selves. This content is provided solely for your professional and personal education and development. Our intention is to offer a broader understanding of the world so it may be recognised that there is a choice beyond the automated and repeating patterns of belief and existence. From this space, so many more possibilities become available to everyone.

We conduct extensive research both on the inner and outer plains, to provide valuable and true content, but we are not responsible for how you use that information.

Please be aware that the generalised information we provide is not a substitute for specialist advice tailored to your individual circumstances.

Your visit to our website does not form a professional relationship unless you explicitly choose to work with us by purchasing our services or products, which include private and individualised support.

Any testimonials or results we may display on this website are based on our experience and those of our previous clients. They are not guarantees that anyone else will achieve the same results, as we are all different and have unique circumstances.

While we take all reasonable care to ensure that the content we create is accurate, relevant and up to date, we make no guarantees and disclaim any legal liability for inaccuracy, incompleteness or error. If you find something problematic, let us know!

We may modify our content at any time, including altering or deleting it without notice.

Visitor Responsibilities

You are responsible for your own safety and wellbeing while browsing the internet. Do not act on anything you read without first conducting your own research, consulting appropriately qualified professionals, and making informed choices about what is right for you, based on your personal circumstances.

It really should go without saying, but as a user of our website or School platform, you agree not to behave maliciously, spam any other user, post defamatory content about anyone, infect any aspect of our websites with malware, hack into any part of our websites where you don't have our permission to be, or use our websites for any purpose other than consuming our content, engaging in our programs, and purchasing our products or services. You also agree not to use our website, School platform, or content in any way that is unlawful or harmful to any other person or business. If you do, we have the right to refuse you service and ban you from accessing our website or social media.

Downloads

This site and the School may offer paid and free downloads. While we take cybersecurity seriously and make every reasonable effort to ensure these downloads are safe and hassle free, we are not responsible for any viruses or other damage that might occur as a result of you downloading material from this site. Please make safety your priority and ensure you have adequate internet security.

External Links

From time to time, we may provide links to external sites. We have no control over the information provided on these sites, and the links are solely for your information, education or entertainment. We do not endorse any products they offer for sale and have no relationship with them unless otherwise clearly notified.

On our practitioner page, we provide links to our graduate's services. We have trained and certified these practitioners to provide our modality to their clients and use our intellectual property within their own unique offerings. We have every faith in their ability to do so ethically and with integrity. However, they are independent businesses and any transaction you enter into is solely their responsibility. We are not a party to the transaction and any relationship you enter with them is at your own risk. If you notice one of our licensees or graduates behaving in a way that could damage the reputation of our School, we would be grateful if you let us know privately and confidentially.

Why Work With Us?

There are several ways you can work with us, all of which can be purchased or booked through our website or online School platform. The terms and conditions in this document apply to all our services and products unless alternative terms are explicitly provided to you.

We offer:

- 1:1 consultations,
- private and group mentoring,
- private and group retreats, and
- courses, programs, workshops, circles and masterclasses.

Our intention in offering these services & products is to help you evolve, release suffering and remember the truth of who you are, so you can live a life of joy and freedom.

Dr Niikee is trained in several modalities and offers any combination that she deems most suitable for a client. She is dedicated to assisting and supporting people in positively changing their lives. Please see our About Page for more information about our qualifications and practice. We also encourage you to review our Code of Ethics.

We believe it is our responsibility to:

- conduct sessions safely and ethically,
- prioritise your informed consent,
- deliver what we have promised with integrity,
- expand your awareness of the greater reality,
- hold space for you to explore your needs,
- practice within the scope of our qualifications,
- refer you to collaborative care if our services are not the best fit for your needs,
- undertake ongoing professional development,
- make all reasonable efforts to meet a high standard of best practice,
- share with you any and all tools we consider might be useful for your long-term integration and growth, and
- hold you with the utmost respect in a non-judgmental way, with kindness and compassion.

We comply with the National Code of Conduct for Health Care Workers \(Queensland\).

What You Need to Know

Important information about how to care for your own wellbeing and get the most value out of working with us, is set out below. If you have any questions or concerns, please email us before purchasing.

If you choose to work with us, we expect you to fully commit to creating change. This means sharing honestly and openly about what is happening with you and continuing with integration work beyond the sessions to reprogram your unhelpful habitual behaviours. We encourage you to exert your sovereignty and make a commitment to yourself that it is time for change.

This work can very briefly give rise to emotional discomfort; however you are held in highest light so it is not interpreted in a harmful way. This is often required so it can be witnessed and evolved through conscious awareness in order to stop repeating patterns of suffering to change your life for the better. We ask that you hold yourself in the highest regard no matter what comes to the surface, letting go of guilt, shame and judgment. Understand that everybody has faulty programs and unresolved issues in their subconscious.

Gifting yourself the opportunity to release the disharmony so you can hold more light will improve your life. Most importantly, recognise that you are a divine soul having a human experience for the purpose of your evolution.

Ascension is an ongoing process. We will get great results with every session, creating marked improvements in your life. Many layers can exist to unravel, created through various timelines and ancestry. These indicate that you are progressing well and have chosen this path because you are capable of clearing these patterns not only for yourself and your family. You are also making a difference to these same programs within our collective consciousness too.

Following the integration work you have been given after a session will ensure more rapid and permanent outcomes and greater upliftment in how you feel about yourself and others in the world around you.

Please ensure you are in a quiet space where you will not be disturbed during a session and have clean water with you. You must not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs. A session may give rise to heightened emotions, which we will harmonise prior to completion of the session. The integration work we provide is key, in the initial weeks, for supporting the reprogramming of your energetics back into alignment with your original harmonic and template.

Be gentle with yourself for the rest of the day if you can. Allow space rather than rushing into the next thing. We may ask you to review the recording or other resources to continue the work over the following weeks. It is important that you do your homework – spending even 5 minutes a day to plug into the higher frequencies will make a major difference. You are very welcome to reach out to us over the following week if anything arises that you feel you are not equipped to process.

Any information you provide to us is treated as confidential and will not be disclosed to any third party at any stage, unless required by law, or if it is deemed that you are at risk of harm to yourself or others.

Disclaimer

We are not medical or mental health professionals, and our work does not treat or diagnose any disease or illness. You always remain fully responsible for your own physical, emotional and mental wellbeing. If any concerns arise during our work together, we strongly recommend you get in contact with us or seek advice from an appropriately qualified professional.

It is your duty to disclose any other treatments you have received in the past or are currently receiving, and of any known health conditions. If you are working with a different health practitioner, it is important that you inform us and continue any treatment plans. If you are taking any medication or treatments, this is not the time to stop. We are always happy to work collaboratively as part of your holistic health care team.

If you ever perceive or feel that information opposes a primary health care provider's treatment plan or recommendations, you are strongly advised to discuss this with us so that we can follow up with this provider as necessary for further discussions. If you have any concerns or feel that you do not fully understand the implications of any of the recommendations made in relation to your situation, you are advised to inform us as soon as possible and before following the advice.

Suitability

You will get the most out of working with us if you are open minded and ready to experience the higher possible realities of the New Earth – if you know there is something more available in this life than is currently in your conscious awareness. You might not be a good fit for this work if you don't believe in magic, are sceptical about anything outside the physical realm, or are convinced you cannot create beneficial change.

Indemnity

If the indemnities below are unenforceable for any reason, our total cumulative liability for all causes of action (other than negligence or deliberate wrongdoing) will not exceed the amount you have paid us.

Accuracy and Integrity

While we strive to ensure that all the material on our website, the School platform and the products, services, and programs offered through it are accurate and up to date, we acknowledge that errors can occur despite our best intentions. We stand by what is shared as our beliefs, but it may not always align with your own. Please let us know if you notice anything that seems amiss, and we will address it as soon as possible.

Limitation of Liability

We deeply care about your experience and will always strive to support you in any way we can. However, even though we do our best to ensure the utmost integrity in everything we offer and make all reasonable efforts to meet the highest standards of best practice, sometimes things may not go as planned. If something goes wrong you agree that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, we won't be held responsible for any loss or damage related to our website, School platform, products, or services unless it is directly caused by our negligence, misrepresentation, or deliberate fault.

Personal Responsibility

We offer our wisdom and perspective to aid your self-empowerment and healing, and it is at your sole discretion as to whether our advice be taken onboard. We trust in your judgment and believe in your ability to make informed choices. While we provide suggestions and options for your consideration, you take full responsibility for how you implement them. We encourage you to consult your own values and vision, conduct your own research, and seek advice from qualified professionals before making any major decisions or significant life changes.

You should always exercise your own personal authority and your choice to act on any of the information provided in the session is your responsibility. You agree to indemnify us against any consequences that come from your decisions.

Consumer Guarantees

We take our obligations under Australian Consumer Law seriously and will do our best to address any issues arising from our services. However, even if there is a major problem, our liability is strictly limited to:

- replacing the goods or providing the services again; or
- if we are unable to do so within a reasonable time, refunding the full amount that you have paid us.

We are dedicated to providing you with valuable and meaningful support and stand by our commitment to integrity and care in all our interactions with you. If you feel any problem with our services, please let us know as soon as possible. We are keen to understand what has gone wrong if you are unhappy so that we can address your concerns and find a mutually acceptable solution.

Payment Terms

All prices on our website are in Australian dollars and include GST.

Payment for sessions is required in advance.

Payment plans are offered for your convenience only, so you can spread your payment out over time. You are still committed to paying the whole amount, even if you change your mind about your purchase, as you have had access to our intellectual property. You must ensure you have sufficient funds to make payment instalments on time. Contact us if there is a problem due to extenuating circumstances. We may make alternative arrangements on compassionate grounds at our sole discretion.

We accept payment through Stripe, Wise or by bank deposit.

We do not have access to your account details. Any financial information you enter is stored under the relevant provider's security policy:

Stripe: <https://stripe.com/docs/security/stripe>.

Wise: <https://wise.com/gb/about/security>

Refund Policy

We do not offer a refund if you change your mind, so you are encouraged to consider carefully whether an offer is right for you before you pay.

Delivery

Where sessions are held online using Zoom, unless we have made prior arrangements for a face-to-face consult, you are responsible for ensuring that the software is installed and working before our session.

The session will be recorded and uploaded to a password-protected OneDrive account, and the link will be shared with you unless you request otherwise. Recordings are made available to you for your personal recollection only and are not to be shared or made public for any reason.

When there are live workshops, retreats or other in-person events, delivery will be clearly defined on the relevant sales page.

Appointment Policies

Please try to give us at least 24 hours' notice if you need to reschedule.

For online appointments, you need to be set up in a private, quiet area where you can speak freely and will not be disturbed. A café or public space is not suitable. You will need to focus so please reschedule if you will be driving or supervising young children.

Make sure that you have drinking water, coloured pens and a journal for groups, and keep the tissues close at hand as our sessions can get emotional while we are clearing these stuck patterns.

Intellectual Property

Copyright & Trade Secrets

The content of this website, our School platform, and all our courses and resources is protected by copyright laws and treaties worldwide, with all rights reserved. This means that you must not use, copy, or make our work public without our permission.

You are welcome to share blog posts or other publicly available content through social media, but you must provide a link back to the original source.

If you are participating in our courses, content is provided strictly for your personal and non-commercial use. Course content contains trade secrets that are offered exclusively to participants. It is an essential condition of participation that you agree that you will not provide extracts of any course content to anyone else, print or download our content without our explicit written consent.

Trade Marks

We own the unregistered trademarks and logos displayed on our website and School platform, including Intuitive Energetics™. These trademarks may not be used in connection with any other product or service without a license, which is only provided to graduates of our School, or in any way that is likely to cause confusion in the marketplace or in any manner that disparages us or our business.

Respectful Communication

We reserve the right to moderate any comments made on this website, in the Facebook Groups we control, and on any of our social media pages and profiles, including deleting comments that we deem to be rude, offensive, spammy, or unacceptable without any notification or correspondence with you. Please keep all communication kind and polite.

Disrespectful or aggressive behaviour towards our team or anybody else will not be tolerated.

Dispute Resolution & Jurisdiction

If there is a problem, you agree to meet with us in good faith to discuss it and try to make a genuine effort to find a win-win solution. If the problem cannot be resolved within a reasonable time, you agree to engage in mediation and alternative dispute resolution methods, with litigation being a last resort. We commit to making a similar effort to resolve any disputes in a friendly manner.

These Terms & Conditions are subject to the governing law of Queensland. Regardless of where you live in the world, you irrevocably agree that if the dispute resolution processes fail, the courts of Queensland and the Commonwealth of Australia will have exclusive jurisdiction.
